

The K-LOVE Radio Station does a great job of serving me as a resident of my community. I love the music they play and the news and messages they broadcast. I haven't found any other radio station in my area that provides the same service. They also list local events that I'm often interested in. If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, I'm sure the community would lose something that many residents really value--and that is the opportunity to listen to great music and an encouraging message. I know many people who listen to K-LOVE--and sometimes nothing but K-LOVE who would really feel that something is missing without it. It's very family-friendly, and encourages good values. People with young kids can listen to K-LOVE knowing that their kids will never hear anything that could be too "adult" for them. There isn't any other radio station I know of that provides this valuable service. Plus, many of the local events broadcasted on K-LOVE wouldn't get nearly the publicity or attendance, because they're events that wouldn't normally be mentioned elsewhere. Also, K-LOVE supports many good non-profit organizations, and I'm sure these would suffer if people couldn't get K-LOVE on the dial. Please, please, please let us keep listening to K-LOVE.

Thank you,
Mary O.
